

Sponsored by:
The Goldman School of Public Policy's
Center on Civility & Democratic Engagement

Big Money Politics after Citizens United: Keeping Voters Engaged in Democracy

Saturday, April 18th / 11:00am-12:30pm / 145 Dwinelle

Eva Paterson

President & Co-Founder of the Equal Justice Society

Nathaniel Persily

James B. McClatchy Professor of Law at Stanford University

Pete Peterson

Executive Director of the Davenport Institute at Pepperdine University

Bipartisan campaign-finance reform was dealt a serious blow with the Citizens United ruling. How can we keep our democracy strong as “deep-pockets” secretly attempt to control results and drown out civil discourse?

Moderated by Dick Beahrs, BA '68

CalDay
One day. A million stories.